Processional Hymn

At the name of Jesus ev'ry knee shall bow,
ev'ry tongue confess Him King of glory now;
'tis the Father's pleasure we should call Him Lord,
who from the beginning was the mighty Word.

At his voice creation sprang at once to sight,
all the angel faces, all the hosts of light,
thrones and dominations, stars upon their way,
all the heav'nly orders in their great array.

Humbled for a season to receive a name
from the lips of sinners unto whom He came,
faithfully He bore it spotless to the last,
brought it back victorious when from death He passed.

Bore it up triumphant with its human light,
through all ranks of creatures to the central height,
to the throne of Godhead, to the Father's breast,
filled it with the glory of that perfect rest.

In your hearts enthrone Him; there let Him subdue
all that is not holy, all that is not true;
crown him as your captain in temptation's hour;
let His will enfold you in its light and pow'r.

Truly, this Lord Jesus shall return again
with His Father's glory, with His angel train;
for all wreaths of empire meet upon His brow,
and our hearts confess Him King of glory now.

Words: Caroline Noel Tune: Camberwell

Collect of the Day

O God the King of glory,
you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ
with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven:
we beseech you, leave us not comfortless,
but send your Holy Spirit to strengthen us and exalt us to the place where our Saviour Christ is gone before,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

First Reading Acts 1: 15-17 & 21-26

In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred and twenty people) and said, 'Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus—for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry.'

So one of the men who have accompanied us throughout the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us—one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection.' So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed and said, 'Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.' And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

Gradual Psalm Psalm 1

That man hath perfect blessedness, who walketh not astray
In counsel of ungodly men, nor stands in sinners' way,

Nor sitteth in the scorner's chair: But placeth his delight
Upon God's law, and meditates on his law day and night.

He shall be like a tree that grows near planted by a river,
Which in his season yields his fruit, and his leaf fadeth never:

And all he doth shall prosper well the wicked are not so;
But like they are unto the chaff, which wind drives to and fro.

PLEASE STAND AS THE GOSPEL BOOK IS TAKEN TO THE LECTERN

In judgment therefore shall not stand such as ungodly are;
Nor in th' assembly of the just shall wicked men appear.

For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
Whereas the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

Translation: The Scottish Psalter
Tune: Abridge

Gospel Reading John 17: 6-19

'I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one. While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.

Offertory Hymn

Blessèd city, heavenly Salem, vision dear of peace and love,
who of living stones art builded in the height of heaven above,
and with angel hosts encircled, as a bride dost earthward move!

Christ is made the sure foundation, Christ the Head and cornerstone, chosen of the Lord, and precious, binding all the church in one,
Holy Zion's help for ever, and her confidence alone.

To this temple, where we call Thee, come, O Lord of Hosts, to-day;
with Thy wonted loving-kindness hear Thy servants as they pray,
and Thy fullest benediction shed within its walls alway.

Here vouchsafe to all Thy servants what they ask of Thee to gain, what they gain from Thee for ever with the blessed to retain,
and hereafter in Thy glory evermore with Thee to reign.

Laud and honour to the Father, laud and honour to the Son, laud and honour to the Spirit, ever Three, and ever One,
consubstantial, co-eternal, while unending ages run.

Words: tr. John Mason Neale

Tune: Westminster Abbey

Communion Hymns

O thou, who at Thy Eucharist didst pray
that all thy Church might be for ever one,
grant us at every Eucharist to say with longing heart and soul, "Thy will be done."
O may we all one Bread, one Body be,
through this blest Sacrament of unity.

For all thy Church, O Lord, we intercede;
make Thou our sad divisions soon to cease;
draw us the nearer each to each, we plead,
by drawing all to Thee, O Prince of Peace;
thus may we all one Bread, one Body be,
through this blest Sacrament of unity.

We pray Thee too for wanderers from Thy fold;
O bring them back, good Shepherd of the sheep,
back to the faith which saints believed of old,
back to the Church which still that faith doth keep;
soon may we all one Bread, one Body be,
through this blest Sacrament of unity.

So, Lord, at length when sacraments shall cease,
may we be one with all Thy Church above,
one with Thy saints in one unbroken peace,
one with Thy saints in one unbounded love;
more blessed still, in peace and love to be one with the Trinity in Unity.

*Words: William Turton
Tune: Song 1*

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun does his successive journeys run,
his kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
till moons shall wax and wane no more.

People and realms of every tongue dwell on his love with sweetest song,
and infant voices shall proclaim their early blessings on his name.

Blessings abound where'er he reigns: the prisoners leap to lose their chains,
the weary find eternal rest,
and all the humble poor are blest.

To him shall endless prayer be made, and praises throng to crown his head.
His name like incense shall arise
with every morning sacrifice.

Let every creature rise and bring peculiar honours to our King,
angels descend with songs again,
and earth repeat the loud amen.

*Words: Isaac Watts
Tune: Truro*

Post-Communion Prayer

Eternal God, giver of love and power,
your Son Jesus Christ has sent us into all the world
to preach the gospel of his kingdom:
confirm us in this mission,
and help us to live the good news we proclaim;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Recessional Hymn

Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son,
endless is the victory Thou o'er death hast won;
angels in bright raiment rolled the stone away,
kept the folded grave-clothes where Thy body lay.
*Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son,
endless is the victory Thou o'er death hast won.*

Lo! Jesus meets us, risen from the tomb;
lovingly He greets us, scatters fear and gloom;
let the Church with gladness hymns of triumph sing,
for her Lord now liveth; death hath lost its sting.
Thine be the glory . . .

No more we doubt Thee, glorious Prince of life;
life is nought without Thee: aid us in our strife;
make us more than conquerors, through Thy deathless love:
bring us safe through Jordan to Thy home above.
Thine be the glory . . .

Words: Edmond Budry
Tune: Maccabaeus
