Processional Hymn

Jesus calls us o'er the tumult of our life's wild, restless sea;
day by day His sweet voice soundeth,
saying "Christian, follow me!"

As of old St Andrew heard it by the Galilean lake, turned from home and toil and kindred,
leaving all for His dear sake.

Jesus calls us from the worship of the vain world's golden store,
from each idol that would keep us,
saying "Christian, love me more."

In our joys and in our sorrows, days of toil and hours of ease,
still He calls, in cares and pleasures,
"Christian, love Me more than these."

Jesus calls us: by Thy mercy, Saviour, help us hear Thy call;
give our hearts to Thine obedience,
serve and love Thee best of all!

Words: Cecil Alexander Tune: St Andrew

The Collect

O God,
the strength of all those who put their trust in you,
mercifully accept our prayers
and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature
we can do no good thing without you,
grant us the help of your grace,
that in the keeping of your commandments
we may please you both in will and deed;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

First Reading
Galatians 3: 23-29

Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.

Gradual Psalm
Psalm 42

As the deer pants for the water
so my soul longs after You.
You alone are my hearts desire
and I long to worship You.

*You alone are my strength, my shield
to You alone may my spirit yield.
You alone are my heart's desire
and I long to worship You.*

I want You more than gold and silver
only You can satisfy.
You alone are the real joy giver
and the apple of my eye.

You alone are my strength, my shield...

PLEASE STAND AS THE GOSPEL BOOK IS TAKEN TO THE LECTERN

You're my friend and You are my brother
even though You are a King
I love You more than any other
so much more than any thing
You alone are my strength, my shield...

Translated: Martin Nystrom
Tune: Martin Nystrom

Gospel Reading
Luke 8: 26-39

Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, 'What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me'— for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Legion'; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, 'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

Offertory Hymn

I heard the voice of Jesus say, "Come unto me and rest;
lay down, O weary one, lay down your head upon my breast."
I came to Jesus as I was, so weary, worn, and sad.
I found in Him a resting place, and He has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say, "Behold, I freely give the living water, thirsty one; stoop down and drink and live."
I came to Jesus, and I drank of that life-giving stream;
my thirst was quenched, my soul revived, and now I live in Him.

I heard the voice of Jesus say, "I am this dark world's light;
look unto me, thy morn shall rise, and all thy day be bright."
I looked to Jesus, and I found in him my star, my sun,
and in that light of life I'll walk till travelling days are done.

Tune: Kingsfold

Communion Hymns

Let all mortal flesh keep silence, and with fear and trembling stand.
Ponder nothing earthly minded, for with blessing in his hand
Christ our God to earth descendeth our full homage to demand.

King of kings, yet born of Mary, as of old on earth He stood,
Lord of lords, in human vesture, in the body and the blood,
He will give to all the faithful His own self for heavenly food.

Rank on rank the host of heaven spreads its vanguard on the way, as the Light of light descendeth from the realms of endless day that the powers of hell may vanish, as the darkness clears away.

At His feet the six-winged seraph, cherubim with sleepless eye, veil their faces to the Presence, as with ceaseless voice they cry,
"Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia, Lord Most High!"

Words: tr. G. Moultrie

Tune: Picardy

Immortal Love for ever full, for ever flowing free,
for ever shared, for ever whole, a never-ebbing sea.

Our outward lips confess the name all other names above;
love only knoweth whence it came and comprehendeth love.

We may not climb the heavenly steeps to bring the Lord Christ down;
in vain we search the lowest deeps, for Him no depths can drown:

But warm, sweet, tender, even yet a present help is He;
and faith has still its Olivet, and love its Galilee.

The healing of His seamless dress is by our beds of pain;
we touch Him in life's throng and press, and we are whole again.

Through Him the first fond prayers are said our lips of childhood frame;
the last low whispers of our dead are burdened with His name.

Alone, O Love ineffable, Thy saving name is given;
to turn aside from Thee is hell, to walk with Thee is heaven.

Words: John Whittier

Tune: Bishopthorpe

Post-Communion Prayer

Eternal Father,
we thank you for nourishing us
with these heavenly gifts:
may our communion strengthen us in faith,
build us up in hope,
and make us grow in love;
for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Recessional Hymn

Thou, whose almighty Word
chaos and darkness heard,
and took their flight;
hear us, we humbly pray,
and where the gospel day
sheds not its glorious ray,
let there be light!

Thou, who didst come to bring,
on Thy redeeming wing,
healing and sight,
health to the sick in mind,
sight to the inly blind,
O now to all mankind,
let there be light!

Spirit of truth and love,
life giving, holy dove,
speed forth Thy flight!
Move on the water's face
bearing the lamp of grace,
and in earth's darkest place,
let there be light!

Holy and blessed three,
glorious Trinity,
wisdom, love, might;
boundless as ocean's tide,
rolling in fullest pride,
through the world far and wide,
let there be light!

Words: John Marriott
Tune: Moscow
